French Fire

- Animal Services responded to the French Fire in the Kern River valley on Friday, August 20
- In partnership with CCADT, care was provided 7 days a week to approximately 45 animals over the course of two weeks to help evacuated residents stay safe with their pets
- Both Animal Services large and small evacuation trailer were deployed, in addition to using a portion of a cache of emergency response supplies that had been located in the KRV
- Officers responded to calls daily in the area in units, providing shelter-in-place care, delivering supplies, and evacuating animals to safety
